PRESS RELEASE | Visit of Prime Minister Abe to the State of Israel

April 27, 2018

Prime Minister Shinzo Abe is scheduled to visit the State of Israel from May 1 to 2, 2018. This is Prime Minister Abe's second visit three years after the first visit in January 2015. This visit coincides with the seventy anniversary of the state of Israel.

In Israel, Prime Minister Abe will express Japan's commitment to actively contribute to the Middle East Peace process, taking advantage of its good relationships with both parties.

In addition, a high level business delegation will accompany Prime Minister, which is hoped to enhance further economic ties between Japan and Israel.

Note: On this occasion, the spokesperson of Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan, Mr. Norio Maruyama, who will accompany this Prime Minister Abe's visit, will be ready to take the inquiry from Israeli media.
