

Ambassador Arai's lecture at the webinar hosted by the Middle East Institute of Japan

On March 28, Ambassador to Israel ARAI Yusuke made a presentation on “Geopolitical Changes in the Middle East around Israel and Israel's Potential” at a webinar hosted by the Middle East Institute of Japan.

In his presentation, Ambassador Arai explained vibrant daily life in Israel and Israeli citizens' views on the current situation based on objective data and information. He also explained the Israeli economy, which continues to show steady economic growth, and in particular, active investment trends in start-up and innovation areas.

The seminar participants asked questions about, for example, the outlook of the situation in the region.

