

The Visit of Ambassador Aiboshi to the Hebrew University of Jerusalem

On the 23rd of October 2018, the ambassador of Japan, Koichi Aiboshi visited the Hebrew University of Jerusalem.

Ambassador Yossi GAL, the Vice President for External Relations for the Hebrew University welcomed Ambassador Aiboshi and explained about the history and current situation of the University, which celebrates a 100 years cornerstone anniversary this year.

Moreover, Ambassador Aiboshi viewed at the Japanese photo exhibition and the "Akie Book Collection", which was donated by Mrs. Akie Abe, wife of the Prime Minister of Japan Mr. Shinzo ABE, at the university's Bloomfield Library. Ambassador also was briefed by professors and lecturers including Prof. Nissim Otmazgin, the Director of the Department of Asian Studies, regarding the department's recent activities and exchanged opinions about further cooperation.

